

Janusz Kudła
Konrad Walczyk
Robert Kruszewski
Katarzyna Kopczewska
Agata Kocia

Modeling Fiscal Policy in the European Union

Polish Studies in Economics

Edited by Ryszard Kokoszcyński

Volume 5

Contents

Introduction	7
Chapter 1
Taxation and debt in European countries.....	9
1. Tax systems in theory.....	9
2. The tendencies in European taxation.....	15
3. The indebtedness problem.....	16
4. The tax adjustment	22
Chapter 2
The static tax competition models with debt.....	39
1. Introduction	39
2. The one-country static model of taxation	40
3. The optimal taxation in the one-country model	44
4. Basic assumptions of Nash equilibrium model	46
5. The new economic geography approach	56
6. Transaction tax on bonds income	61
7. Common tax base with formula apportionment.....	65
Chapter 3
Dynamic model of fiscal solvency with capital tax shifting.....	75
1. Introduction	75
2. The model.....	78
3. Numerical analysis	83
Chapter 4
Spatial modeling of fiscal policy and debt.....	95
1. Introduction	95
2. The measurement of debt and tax changes	98
3. Dataset.....	104
4. Spatial modeling of debt determinants.....	107
5. The implications from the model results for the tax-mix.....	115
6. Conclusions.....	116
Chapter 5
Fiscal policy recommendations.....	119
References.....	133