

Inga Łobocka-Poguntke

The Evolution of EC
Consumer Protection in the Field of
Consumer Credit

PETER LANG

Table of Contents

Introduction	13
The Idea of a European Integrated Market	19
Historical Review	19
Commission's View Point.....	21
EC Consumer Credit Legislation	27
Proposal for a Directive on Consumer Credit	30
Opinions about Proposal	35
The New Directive.....	46
Internal Market and Consumer Protection.....	61
EU Consumer	67
New Concept of the EU Consumer Protection	71
How Far Should the Legislator Go in Interfering?	78
Individual Freedoms v. State Intervention	89
Contract Law v. State Intervention	96
Costs of Intervention v. Costs of Lack of Intervention.	100
Conclusions	105
Harmonisation of Consumer Credit Legislation.....	109
Results of Minimum Harmonisation	112
Full Harmonisation and a Confident Consumer	115
Full Harmonisation and Pre-emption	138
Conclusions	143
Information Duties and Right to Withdraw – Agreement on EU Level	145
Information Duties in the Previous Regulations.....	156
The New Directive.....	158
Right to Withdraw.....	161
Remedies	166
Conclusions	170

Responsible Credit, Principles for Responsible Lending

– Leeway for Member States	173
The Idea in Legislative Acts	181
The Idea in the New Directive	185
Conclusions	190
‘Will Europe Ever Get a Fresh Start?’ Consumer Overindebtedness
– Seeking Legal Solutions	193
Financial Education	209
Financial Exclusion	218
Conclusions	238
Final Remarks	241
Conclusions	247
Sources	255
Bibliography	255
Documents	266
Cases	268
Official Documents	269