

Rainer Hofmann / Ugo Caruso (eds.)

Minority Rights in South Asia

PETER LANG

Internationaler Verlag der Wissenschaften

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword

Günther Rautz

Introduction

Rainer Hofmann & Ugo Caruso

1.	Human and Minority Rights in Afghanistan Gulshan Sachdeva	7
2.	Bhutanese Refugees: The struggle in Exile Jagatmani Acharya	23
3.	Human and minority rights in Sri Lanka Anton Piyyarathane	47
4.	Human and Minority Rights in Nepal Som Prasad Niroula	60
5.	Human and Minority Rights in Bangladesh Borhan Uddin Khan & Muhammad Mahbubur Rahman	77
6.	Territorial Autonomy in India Thomas Benedikter	98
7.	Autonomy, Kashmir and International Law Kaiyan Homi Kaikobad	114
8.	Set-Up and Challenges of National Human Rights Commissions in India and Nepal. Emma Lantschner	146
9.	Comprehensive Security in South Asia: SAARC and the Applicability of OSCE Standards Ugo Caruso	163
10.	Immigration to the UK from Commonwealth Countries and The Issue of “New Minorities” Defined by Religion: Between their Group Rights and Integration Murtaza Hassan Shaikh	189