

Gerhard Niedrist (ed.)

Commercial Integration between the European Union and Mexico

Multidisciplinary Studies

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	11
---------------	----

The Impact of the EU-Mexican Trade Agreement on Revealed Comparative Advantage

Bonnie J. Palifka & José de Jesús Salazar Cantú	15
1. Introduction.....	15
2. Review of Literature	18
3. Methodology and Data.....	22
4. Results.....	23
5. Conclusions.....	33
References	35

The EU-Mexico Agreement: What Has Happened to Trade and Capital Flows since 2000?

René Cabral & Daniel Villarreal Cabello	39
1. Introduction.....	39
2. Trade in goods	41
2.1 The EU total trade.....	42
2.2 Mexico's total trade	45
2.3 EU-Mexico trade.....	48
3. Foreign Direct Investment Flows.....	49
3.1 The EU's FDI.....	50
3.2 Mexico's FDI inflows	52
3.3 Mexico's reception of FDI by sector	53
3.4 FDI flows from the EU	55
4. Trade and FDI determinants	56
5. Conclusions.....	59
References	60

Mexican-European Union Free Trade Agreement: Liberalization Process and Mexican Export Performance

Sergio Ortiz Valdés	61
1. Introduction.....	61
2. General Characteristics of the Mexican – European Union Free Trade Agreement.....	62
3. Mexican-EU FTA Tariff Elimination Scheme for Mexican Products	67
4. MEX-EU FTA Commercial Liberation for Mexican Food Products.....	69
5. Mexican Exports to European Union before and after the Mexican-EU-FTA	73
6. Agro-Food Mexican Exports to the European Union	80
7. Mexican exports of processed food to the European Union (Section IV of the HS) before and after the Mexican-EU-FTA.	83
8. Conclusions.....	89
References	91

Mexican Firms' Entry Strategies to the European Union Market

Laura Zapata Cantú, Mariela Quiroga & Ana Luisa Cabrera	95
1. Introduction.....	95
2. The European Union and Mexico Free Trade Agreement.....	95
3. Mexican Imports from the European Union	97
4. Mexican Exports to the European Union	97
5. Chapter objectives.....	99
6. Literature Review: International Strategies	100
7. Traditional Motivators in International Trade.....	101
8. New Motivators	102
9. The Meaning of Internationalization: Prerequisites and Processes	103
10. The evolution of a mentality: from an international strategy to a transnational strategy	106
11. The mode of entry strategies into the European Union by Mexican firms.....	109
12. Conclusions.....	115
References	116

The EU-Mexican FTA and Art. XXIV GATT

Gerhard Niedrist	119
1. Introduction.....	119
2. Trade creation vs. trade diversion	120
3. Art. XXIV GATT	122
4. The external criteria: Art. XXIV:5b GATT	123

5. The internal criteria: Art. XXIV:8b GATT.....	124
6. The EU-Mexican FTA in the light of Art. XXIV GATT.....	126
6.1 The CRTA.....	126
6.2 Trade Data.....	127
7. Conclusions.....	129
References	130

Investment Protection Standards in the Mexico –

European Union Bilateral Investment Treaties:

Fair and Equitable Treatment and Full Protection and Security

Gabriel Cavazos Villanueva & Magda Carolina Sánchez Navarro	133
1. Introduction.....	133
2. The new EU investment policy.....	136
2.1 General Framework of the new policy.....	136
2.2 Evolution of investment regulation in the EU.....	138
2.3 BITs Concluded by EU Member States prior to the entry into force of the Treaty of Lisbon	140
2.4 BIT Arbitration under the proposed regulation.....	140
2.5 Substantive investment protections under the new investment policy	141
3. Fair and Equitable Treatment in the context of the Mexico-EU BITs.	142
3.1 General notion of FET	142
4.3.1 The interpretation of FET in accordance to international law principles.....	143
3.1.2 The interpretation of FET as a standard linked to customary international law.....	145
3.1.3 The interpretation of FET as a self-contained standard	147
3.1.4 Tecmed	149
3.2 The relationship between FET and other standards of investment protection.	155
4. Full Protection and Security.....	157
4.1 FPS linked to Customary International Law	159
4.2 FPS as a self-contained standard.....	159
5. Conclusions.....	160
References	162
Cases.....	164
Treaties	165

Reputations and Supportive Behavior of Spanish and U.S. Firms in Mexico

William Newbury, M Abrahim Soleimani & Armando Borda	167
1. Introduction.....	167
2. Hypotheses.....	168
2.1 Foreign Headquarters.....	169
2.2 Degree of Internationalization.....	173
2.3 Individual-Level Demographic Influences.....	173
2.4 Supportive Behavior	176
3. Methodology.....	178
3.1 Sample	178
3.2 Dependent Variables.....	178
3.3 Independent Variables.....	179
3.4 Control Variables.....	180
3.5 Analysis	180
4. Results.....	180
4.1 Corporate reputation	183
5. Supportive behavior.....	184
6. Discussion.....	184
7. Conclusions.....	187
References	188

Regulatory Changes of the Financial Industry in the E.U.

Roberto Joaquín Santillán Salgado	195
1. Introduction.....	195
2. The origins of the 2007-2009 financial crisis in the United States	197
3. The European Union's Financial Regulation Framework: Some Antecedents.....	200
4. The First Bank Directive.....	201
5. The Second Bank Directive	202
6. The Investment Services Directive	203
7. The Capital Adequacy Directive.....	204
8. Financial Services Action Plan	204
9. The Commission of Wise Men and the Lamfalussy Report	205
10. Why did the existing regulations fail in 2007-2009?	206
11. The integration of the financial markets in Europe, national regulations and the convergence efforts	208
12. The Larosi�re and Turner Reports	209
13. Lord Turner's Report	213
14. Concluding Remarks.....	216
References	217

An Approach to the CSR of European Companies Operating in Mexico

Florina Guadalupe Arredondo Trapero, Verónica del Carmen

Maldonado de Lozada & Alfonso Benito Fraile	219
1. Introduction.....	219
2. European and Mexican Conceptions of CSR.....	219
3. The Millenium Development Goals (MDG) as Reference for CSR in Mexico	222
4. The Stakeholders' Role in Defining CSR Objectives	224
Spanish Companies in Mexico and their CSR	225
5. BBVA	227
6. Santander	227
7. Gas Natural Unión FENOSA.....	228
8. Gas Natural Mexico	229
9. Telefónica	230
10. Sol Melia.....	231
11. CSR of Spanish Companies in Mexico in the EUMFTA framework	232
12. Conclusion	239
References	240

